Call To Worship

Worship Assistant and Congregation

Leader: You who fear God, praise him and stand in awe.

People: For God did not hide God’s face from us.

Leader: All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to God.

People: All the families of the nations shall worship before our God.

Leader: Posterity will serve God; future generations will be told about God.

People: They will proclaim God’s deliverance to a people yet unborn, saying that God has done it.

Prayer of the Day

Led by Worship Assistant

Let us pray together...We worship you, O God, for you bring us the sure hope of your reign. We pray that you would awaken once again to the vision you have for creation. Help us to stand firm in hope, even when things look hopeless. Amen.

Opening Song
"Holy Is The Lord"

Congregation and Crossroads
Tomlin and Giglio

Song Leader: Pastor John Woods

Pastor John:

We stand and lift up our hands
For the joy of the Lord is our strength
We bow down and worship Him now.
How great, how awesome is He.
And together we sing.
Everyone sing.

All sing:

Holy is the Lord, God Almighty.
The earth is filled with His glory.
Holy is the Lord, God Almighty.
The earth is filled with His glory.
The earth is filled with His glory.

Repeat all of the above.

Pastor John:

And it's rising up all around
It's the anthem of the Lord's renown
It's rising up all around
It's the anthem of the Lord's renown
And together we sing.
Everyone sing.

All sing:

Holy is the Lord, God Almighty.
The earth is filled with His glory.
Holy is the Lord, God Almighty.
The earth is filled with His glory.
The earth is filled with His glory.
The earth is filled with His glory.

Prayer of Confession

Pastor Woods and Congregation

Leader: Let us confess to God and before one another our sins, and especially the ways in which we so easily give up hope and settle into despair.

People: We confess to you, O God, and before one another that we have sinned. You have given us a wonderful vision of creation as you intend it to be and as you will bring it to become, and yet we despair. We look around us at the violence and greed that seems to be everywhere, and we doubt there will ever be peace and prosperity for all. We look at our own problems and the troubles of our families and friends, and we worry about the outcomes. We fail to see things as you see them. We fail to catch the vision you have for us and for all creation. Renew that vision within us, and establish us in your hope that endures forever. Amen.

Leader: God does have a wonderful vision for us. God is always at work to bring that vision into reality. Be filled with God's hope and work to make that vision a reality.

Reading Romans 4:13–25

Lay Reader

A reading from Romans.

Paul presents Abraham as the example for how a person comes into a right relationship with God not through works of the law but through faith. Though Abraham and Sarah were far too old for bearing children, Abraham trusted that God would accomplish what God had promised to accomplish.

¹³For the promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. ¹⁴If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. ¹⁵For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

¹⁶For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, ¹⁷as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations") — in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. ¹⁸Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become "the father of many nations," according to what was said, "So numerous shall your descendants be." ¹⁹He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. ²⁰No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, ²¹being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. ²²Therefore his faith "was reckoned to him as righteousness." ²³Now the words, "it was reckoned to him," were written not for his sake alone, ²⁴but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, ²⁵who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Filling us with new Life.

Gospel

Mark 8:31–38

Pastor Woods

The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the eighth chapter.
Glory to you, O Lord.

After Peter confesses his belief that Jesus is the Messiah, Jesus tells his disciples for the first time what is to come. Peter's response indicates that he does not yet understand the way of the cross that Jesus will travel.

³¹Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. ³²He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. ³³But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things."

³⁴He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. ³⁵For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. ³⁶For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? ³⁷Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? ³⁸Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Apostles' Creed

In Unison

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit

suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
on the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,

We invite all baptized believers in
and Savior

Jesus Christ as Lord
to commune with us this morning.

*Those unable to come forward for the sacrament,
please bring this to the attention of an usher and communion will be brought to you.*

MISSION STATEMENT

We at Calvary believe God wants our congregation to exist in order to reflect God's love through our actions, programs and image; to reach out to our family, the community and the world; to provide moral and spiritual leadership. We are called to grow and adjust with the times to make the Gospel relevant for contemporary society.
