“Lord, I Lift your Name on High”

Rick Founds

Lord, I lift your name on high,
Lord, I love to sing your praises.
I’m so glad you’re in my life,
I’m so glad you came to save us.

You came from heaven to earth
To show the way,
From the earth to the cross,
My debt to pay;

From the cross to the grave,
From the grave to the sky;

Lord, I lift your name on high.
(Repeat above)

Lord I lift your name on high.

Prayer of Confession

Pastor and Congregation

Let us confess to God and before one another our sins, and especially our failure to believe that you can bring victory out of every defeat.

People: We confess to you, O God, and before one another that we have sinned. We have come to celebrate the resurrection of Christ from death, and yet we are unable to believe that you can bring victory from the defeats of our lives. We think that our losses, big and small, are what define us. We forget the power of the words “we have been raised with Christ.” We think of Easter as something that happened a long time ago and now is just a time for children. Forgive our unbelief, and so fill us anew with your Spirit that we truly go forth today to live anew. Amen.

God, our creator and redeemer, is still at work among us. The one who raised Christ from death raises us as well. We can know the power of the resurrection here and now, not just in some distant future. Live with hope and courage that all may know God’s power and love.

Responsive Prayer

Pastor and Congregation

They ran with their good news:
"He is risen!" they cried,
"The tomb is empty!"
The angels said, "He is risen,"
but these words seemed to them an idle tale, nothing more than wishful thinking.
And they did not believe.
O God who raises men and women from the dead,
give us the eyes of faith:
that we may not only hear their words
but believe the truth:
that Jesus Christ is risen from the dead,
and, by the Spirit's power,
God has conquered death forever!
Lord, may we believe:
help our unbelief. Amen.

WE HEAR GOD'S WORD

First Reading

Acts 10:34–43

Lay Reader

A reading from Acts...

Peter's sermon, delivered at the home of Cornelius, a Roman army officer, sums up the essential message of Christianity. Everyone who believes in Jesus, whose life, death, and resurrection fulfilled the words of the prophets, receives forgiveness of sins through his name.

³⁴Then Peter began to speak to them: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, ³⁵but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. ³⁶You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ — he is Lord of all. ³⁷That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: ³⁸how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. ³⁹We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; ⁴⁰but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, ⁴¹not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. ⁴²He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Open our hearts,

Gospel Mark 16:1–8

Pastor

The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the sixteenth chapter.
Glory to you, O Lord.

The resurrection of Jesus is announced, and the response is one of terror and amazement.

When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. ²And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. ³They had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" ⁴When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. ⁵As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. ⁶But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. ⁷But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you." ⁸So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

[[And all that had been commanded them they told briefly to those around Peter. And afterward Jesus himself sent out through them, from east to west, the sacred and imperishable proclamation of eternal salvation.]]

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Easter Message

Pastor John Woods

Nicene Creed

In Unison

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,*
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers

Pastor and Congregation

Let us pray...

All power, glory, and praise are yours, O God, for you are the source and ground of our lives. You are the sure foundation on which all we build is secure.

We give you thanks for all the ways you have called us to wake from our slumber and live in the wonder of your love and grace.
We thank you for the way in which the resurrection of Jesus calls us to live more fully into your reign. We lift to you the cares of our hearts and the hurts of this world. We pray for those who have not yet found in you the meaning of their lives. We offer to you ourselves, that we may be part of your loving presence in their lives.
All these things we ask in the Name of our Savior Jesus Christ, Amen.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be with you always. And also with you.

Commemorations for this week. . . .

Monday, April 6, 2015 Albrecht Dürer, died 1528; Matthias Grünewald, died 1529; Lucas Cranach, died 1553; artists These great German artists revealed through their work the mystery of salvation and the wonder of creation. Dürer's work reflected the apocalyptic spirit of his time. Though he remained a Roman Catholic, he was sympathetic to Martin Luther's reforming work. Grünewald's paintings are known for their dramatic forms, vivid colors, and depiction of light. Cranach's work includes many fine religious examples and several portraits of Martin Luther. Cranach was also widely known for his woodcuts.

Thursday, April 9 Dietrich Bonhoeffer, theologian, died 1945 Bonhoeffer was a German theologian who wrote profoundly, yet in an accessible manner. In the Second World War, he became a leader of the Confessing Church in Germany that resisted the Nazi movement. Linked to a plot to kill Hitler, he was hanged shortly before the end of the war.

Friday, April 10 Mikael Agricola, Bishop of Turku, died 1557 Consecrated bishop of Turku, Finland, without the approval of the pope, Agricola began a reform along Lutheran lines. In only three years, he translated the New Testament and worship texts into Finnish, in the process establishing the rules of Finnish writing that are still used today.

MISSION STATEMENT

We at Calvary believe God wants our congregation to exist in order to reflect
