Prayer of Confession

Pastor and Congregation

Leader: Let us confess to God and before one another our sins, and especially our failure to be witnesses of God's life-changing grace and love.

People: We confess to you, O God, and before one another that we have sinned. We gladly hear the good news of your love for us and your call to new life through repentance and forgiveness. We like to talk about your love for all the world, but we are slow to share that good news with others. Fill us with your Spirit and with a bold courage that enables us to be active witnesses of your love and grace. Amen.

Leader: God's love is for all, even for those of us who are poor witnesses.
Receive God's grace as you truly repent and turn your lives around so that you can be bold witnesses for God.

WE HEAR GOD'S WORD

First Reading

1 John 3:1–7

Lay Reader

A reading from John.

God has loved us in order to make us children of God. Though we do not yet know the full details of our future existence, we trust that God will reveal it just as God revealed Jesus to take away our sins.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ²Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. ³And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

⁴Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. ⁵You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. ⁶No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. ⁷Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Luke 24:36b–48

Pastor

The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the twenty-fourth chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

In this account of an appearance after his resurrection, Jesus opens the minds of the disciples to understand him as Messiah. Jesus convinces them that he has been raised and sends them on a mission to proclaim the message of repentance and forgiveness.

^{36b}"Peace be with you." ³⁷They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. ³⁸He said to them, "Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? ³⁹Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have." ⁴⁰And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. ⁴¹While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" ⁴²They gave him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³and he took it and ate in their presence.

⁴⁴Then he said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you — that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled." ⁴⁵Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, ⁴⁶and he said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Nicene Creed

In Unison

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,*
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers

Pastor and Congregation

Let us pray...

All power, glory, and praise are yours, O God, for you are the source and ground of our lives. You are the sure foundation on which all we build is secure.

We give you thanks for all the ways you have called us to wake from our slumber and live in the wonder of your love and grace. We thank you for the way in which the resurrection of Jesus calls us to live more fully into your reign. We lift to you the cares of our hearts and the hurts of this world. We pray for those who have not yet found in you the meaning of their lives. We offer to you ourselves, that we may be part of your loving presence in their lives. All these things we ask in the Name of our Savior Jesus Christ, Amen.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be with you always. And also with you.

Commemorations for this week. . . .

Sunday, April 19, 2015 Olavus Petri, priest, died 1552; Laurentius Petri, Bishop of Uppsala, died 1573; renewers of the church These two brothers studied with Luther at the University of Wittenberg and then returned to their native Sweden to introduce the Lutheran reforms. Olavus published a catechism and hymnal; Laurentius was a professor who defended the office of bishop and later became one.

Tuesday, April 21 Anselm, Bishop of Canterbury, died 1109 This eleventh-century monk was one of the greatest theologians of the Middle Ages. He is remembered for emphasizing the maternal aspects of God, and for the theory that the Son of God became human in order to make the necessary payment for our sin.

Wednesday, April 22 Day of the Creation (Día de la Creación) (LLC) This observance invites us to notice and give God thanks for the wonders of the created universe. As stewards of that creation, we are also challenged to be careful in our use of it.

Thursday, April 23 Toyohiko Kagawa, renewer of society, died 1960 Born in Kobe, Japan, Kagawa was orphaned as a young child. Later, when he became Christian, he was disowned by the rest of his family. Wishing to bring Christian principles into society, he worked among poor people, established schools and hospitals, and worked for peace.

Saturday, April 25 Mark, Evangelist He was not numbered among the twelve apostles, yet Mark was probably a member of the early church community. The gospel that bears his name is the shortest and most direct, and many scholars think it was the first to be written.

Jesus Christ as Lord to commune with us this morning.

Those unable to come forward for the sacrament, please bring this to the attention of an usher and communion will be brought to you.

MISSION STATEMENT

We at Calvary believe God wants our congregation to exist in order to reflect God's love through our actions, programs and image; to reach out to our family, the community and the world; to provide moral and spiritual leadership.
