

CALVARY EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH OF DOVER, PA

THE REV. JOHN M. WOODS, PASTOR

May 24, 2015

8:30 A.M.

On the fiftieth day of Easter we celebrate the Spirit, through whom and in whom the people of God are created and re-created. Pentecost is sometimes called the church's birthday, but might more appropriately be called its baptism day, since the gift of the Spirit is the fullness of baptism. Ezekiel's vision shows the Spirit resurrecting and re-creating not just individuals but a whole people. Romans makes it clear that God is in the process of re-creating the entire cosmos; yet the Spirit is also at work in the most intimate and personal way, praying in us

*Confession and Forgiveness

Pastor and Congregation

Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, who calls us beloved children, who gathers us into one flock, who guides us into all truth.

Amen.

Let us confess our sins, trusting that God will forgive us and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. Faithful and just God, we confess that we are captive to doubt and fear,

bound by the ways that lead to death.

We have not loved our sisters and brothers as you have first loved us.

Forgive us, God of mercy.

Let your Holy Spirit work in us to change our lives and make us new,
that we may know the abundant life given in Jesus Christ, our risen Lord.

Amen.

In this is love, not that we loved God but that God loved us and sent the Son to atone for our sins. In the name of + Jesus Christ, I announce to you that your sins are forgiven.
Let the perfect love of God cast out fear, fill you with joy, and inspire you to live for others.

Amen.

Prayer Of The Day

Let us pray. God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, as you sent upon the disciples the promised gift of the Holy Spirit, look upon your Church and open our hearts to the power of the Spirit. Kindle in us the fire of your love, and strengthen our lives for service in your kingdom; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen

WE HEAR HIS WORD

First Reading: Acts 2:1–21

Lay Reader

A reading from Acts.

Originally Pentecost was a Jewish thanksgiving-type festival celebrated seven weeks after Passover. On this particular Pentecost, however, the Holy Spirit is poured out upon the entire community of believers just as Jesus had promised and the scriptures had prophesied. Empowered by the Spirit, the entire community bears witness to God's activity in multiple languages.

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. ²And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. ⁴All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

⁵Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. ⁶And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. ⁷Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?" ⁸And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? ⁹Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, ¹¹Cretans and Arabs — in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." ¹²All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" ¹³But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

¹⁴But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. ¹⁵Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. ¹⁶No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

¹⁷In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,

and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

¹⁸Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.

¹⁹And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

²⁰The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

²¹Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

O LORD, how manifold | are your works!*

which you have made for the | sport of it.

²⁸All of them | look to you*

²⁹You give it to them; they | gather it;*
you open your hand, and they are filled | with good things.

³⁰You hide your face, and | they are terrified;*
you take away their breath, and they die and return | to their dust.

³¹You send forth your Spirit, and they | are created;*
and so you renew the face | of the earth.

³²May the glory of the LORD en- | dure forever;*
may the LORD rejoice in | all his works. R

³³He looks at the earth | and it trembles;*
he touches the mountains | and they smoke.

³⁴I will sing to the LORD as long | as I live;*

I will praise my God while I have my being.

³⁵May these words of mine please him;*

I will rejoice in the LORD.

³⁷Bless the LORD, O my soul.

Hal-lelujah! R

Second Reading: Romans 8:22–27

Lay Reader

A reading from Romans.

By pouring the Holy Spirit into our hearts, God gives us the promised first fruit of eternal life so that we await God's future in hope. In the meantime, the Spirit also intercedes for us by carrying the prayers of our weak human hearts to God.

²²We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; ²³and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. ²⁴For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? ²⁵But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

²⁶Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. ²⁷And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel: John 15:26–27; 16:4b–15

Pastor

The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the fifteenth and sixteenth chapters.

Glory to you, O Lord.

When speaking to his disciples before his death, Jesus referred to the Holy Spirit as "the Helper" and described the difference the Spirit would make in their lives and in the world.

Chapter 15

²⁶When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. ²⁷You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

Chapter 16

^{4b} "I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. ⁵But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' ⁶But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. ⁷Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. ⁸And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: ⁹about sin, because they do not believe in me; ¹⁰about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; ¹¹about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

¹²I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. ¹³When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. ¹⁴He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. ¹⁵All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

The Nicene Creed

The Prayers

Worship Assistant, Congregation, Pastor

Trusting the Spirit's power, we pray for the church, the world, and all of God's creation. For the church as it receives your Holy Spirit and shares its hope in Christ. For advocates of truth and forgiveness and for perseverance in prayer. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

For the creation as life takes root and grows. For the earth and all planets, for the sun, moon, and stars, for the natural wonders in, among, and beyond us. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

For the nations as they seek guidance. For government and tribal leaders, for international organizations, for translators and interpreters, for prophets and peacemakers.

Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

For those who suffer as they long for healing. For those who are lonely or forgotten, for those who are ill (especially). For veterans, military personnel, and those who advocate on their behalf (especially). Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

For this worshiping community: For acolytes and ushers, readers and intercessors, musicians and artists, for all ministries of hospitality, and for those who cannot be with us this day.

Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

We remember saints led by your Spirit (including scientists Nicolaus Copernicus and Leonhard Euler, whom we commemorate today). Open our eyes to your work in the world and inspire hope for the world to come. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Receive these prayers, gracious God, and those prayers known only to you.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Proper Preface Pastor

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, O Lord, holy Father, through Christ our Lord; who rose beyond the bounds of death and, on this day, as he had promised, poured out your Spirit of life and power upon the chosen disciples. At this the whole earth exults in boundless joy. And so, with the Church on earth and the hosts of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

The Youth Group really appreciates all you do for them! Due to three years of fund raising, they are not in the position to have to ask for massive funds for the National Youth Gathering this year. However, if you are so inclined to donate funds for the incidental expenses, such as meals not covered by event registration, and the Detroit Community project-school supplies, food, diapers... they will gratefully accept your donations. There are cans in the Narthex for your donations. Any monies not needed will go back into the Youth Savings Account for future gatherings.

Prayer Chain/List: if you have a loved one who is in need of prayer, please contact Zina Compton at 586-2718 or call the church office at 298-3891 or email your request to calvarydover@verizon.net . The Simply Giving Program: Enjoy the convenience of electronic giving, which allows you to make donations on a scheduled, automatic basis. If you are writing checks and preparing envelopes every week, you will especially appreciate electronic giving. It is convenient for you and provides much-needed donation consistency for our church. How to get started: To set up electronic donations, simply complete an authorization form located in the narthex and return to the church office. Donations can be debited automatically from either a checking or savings account.
