*Prayer of Confession

Pastor and Congregation

Leader: Let us confess to God and before one another our sins, and especially our failure to take time to listen to God.

People: We confess to you, O God, and before one another that we have sinned.
We listen to all the noise and bedlam around us, without taking the time to listen to you. We spend our time on things of no importance, and ignore the things that lead to life eternal. Forgive us our foolishness, and call us back to sit at Jesus' feet and hear the words of life. Amen.

Leader: God desires to speak to us and to bring us life. Receive God's love and forgiveness, and know the true life God intends for everyone.

WE HEAR GOD'S WORD

First Reading

Lay Reader

Isaiah 50:4-9a

A reading from Isaiah.

The image of the servant of the Lord is one of the notable motifs in the book of Isaiah. Today's reading describes the mission of the servant, whom early Christians associated with Jesus. Like Jesus, the servant does not strike back at his detractors but trusts in God's steadfast love.

- <sup>4</sup> The Lord GOD has given me
the tongue of a teacher,
that I may know how to sustain
the weary with a word.
Morning by morning he wakens—
wakens my ear
to listen as those who are taught.
- <sup>5</sup> The Lord GOD has opened my ear,
and I was not rebellious,
I did not turn backward.
- <sup>6</sup> I gave my back to those who struck me,
and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;
I did not hide my face
from insult and spitting.
- <sup>7</sup> The Lord GOD helps me;
therefore I have not been disgraced;
therefore I have set my face like flint,
and I know that I shall not be put to shame;
<sup>8</sup> he who vindicates me is near.
Who will contend with me?
Let us stand up together.
Who are my adversaries?
Let them confront me.
- <sup>9a</sup> It is the Lord GOD who helps me;
who will declare me guilty?

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Second Reading:

Lay Reader

James 3:1-12

A reading from James.

This text uses various images to illustrate how damaging and hurtful the way we speak to and about others can be. Not only are we to control our speech, but what we say and how we say it is to reflect our faith.

<sup>1</sup>Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. <sup>2</sup>For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle. <sup>3</sup>If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies. <sup>4</sup>Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. <sup>5</sup>So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits. How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire! <sup>6</sup>And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell. <sup>7</sup>For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species, <sup>8</sup>but no one can tame the tongue—a restless evil, full of deadly poison. <sup>9</sup>With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God. <sup>10</sup>From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so. <sup>11</sup>Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water? <sup>12</sup>Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

*Congregational Response

“Ancient Words”

Changing me and changing you;
We have come with open hearts,
O, let the ancient words impart.

*Gospel

Pastor

Mark 8:27-38

The holy gospel according to St. Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

This story provides the turning point in Mark's gospel. Peter is the first human being in the narrative to acknowledge Jesus as the Messiah, but he cannot accept that as the Messiah Jesus will have to suffer. Moreover, Jesus issues a strong challenge to all by connecting discipleship and the cross.

<sup>27</sup> Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?" <sup>28</sup> And they answered him, "John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets." <sup>29</sup> He asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered him, "You are the Messiah." <sup>30</sup> And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

<sup>31</sup> Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. <sup>32</sup> He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. <sup>33</sup> But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things."

<sup>34</sup> He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. <sup>35</sup> For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. <sup>36</sup> For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? <sup>37</sup> Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? <sup>38</sup> Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Blessing for Marine, Jeff Miller

L: JEFFERSON PARKER MILLER from our church family has been called to military service. At this time we invite him to come forward to receive our prayers and blessing.

L: Brother in Christ, we thank you with heartfelt gratitude for your willingness to serve at this time. United with you in faith and in citizenship, we wish to enfold you in our love and surround you with prayer, blessing and the assurance of God's presence as you go forth from this place to fulfill your call.

Let us pray. Lord of the nations and King of the universe, we give you profound thanks for all those who answer the call at this time to serve our nation and to defend and protect our way of life, especially for our brother, Jeff Miller. What lies ahead is in large measure unknown to us and unknown to those who serve. Yet some awareness of the perils and dangers gives us prayerful pause to seek your aid.

C: Be present with those who serve, O Lord.

L: Be present with and guide all our military personnel. Sharpen their skills. Make their judgments true. Give them those things necessary to achieve their goals and defend our cause.

C: Be present with those who serve, O Lord.

L: Give to each man and woman in service to our country your special love, strength, wisdom and grace, that their fears may be laid aside, their faith fostered, their courage made sure, and their spirits comforted by the knowledge of your divine presence throughout their days.

C: Be present with those who serve, O Lord.

L: Guard and protect them from evil and the ways of darkness that threaten us. Send your holy angels to have charge over them and bear them up. Bring to us all the victory of light over darkness as you are the God of light and love.

C: Be present with those who serve, O Lord.

L: Above all, bless this man with a holy blessing that will sustain him in the face of whatever may come. Bless as well our nation, its leaders and its military services that truth, justice, and liberty may prevail and prosper by your aid. For you are the God of blessings and providence, the Source of all good, the Sustainer of our lives, and to you belongs all praise and glory, through your Son Jesus Christ, now and forever. C: Amen

Have Jeff turn to face the congregation, who stands for the final blessing:

L: People of God, send forth this patriot to serve with your commission and the blessing of almighty God.

C: Servant of our nation, go forth on our behalf. Do your duty with honor. Defend us against the darkness. Know that no task is too trivial or small in this cause. Know also that our love and support goes with you. Go forth with blessings in abundance from almighty God, Father, + Son, and Holy Spirit. And may God's peace be with you always. Amen.

*Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
on the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

*The Prayer

Worship Assistant and Congregation

All power, glory, and praise are yours, O God, for you are the source and ground of our lives. You are the sure foundation on which all we build is secure.

We give you thanks for all the ways you have called us to wake from our slumber and live in the wonder of your love and grace.

We thank you for the way in which the resurrection of Jesus calls us to live more fully into your reign. We lift to you the cares of our hearts and the hurts of this world. We pray for those who have not yet found in you the meaning of their lives. We offer to you ourselves, that we may be part of your loving presence in their lives. All these things we ask in the Name of our Savior Jesus Christ, Amen.

*The Peace

The peace of the Lord be with you always. And also with you.

Commemorations for this week. . .

John Chrysostom Sunday, September 13, 2015 John was a priest in Antioch and an outstanding preacher. His eloquence earned him the nickname "Chrysostom" ("golden mouth"). Appointed bishop of Constantinople, seat of the empire, he criticized corruption in the court. As a result, he was exiled by the empress.

Holy Cross Day Monday, September 14, 2015 Helena, mother of Constantine, made a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and found what may be the actual site of Jesus' crucifixion. Her son built two churches there, and the dedication of one of them gave rise to this celebration of our Lord's victory on the cross.

Cyprian Wednesday, September 16, 2015 Cyprian served as a bishop during a time of great persecution of Christians. He insisted on receiving back those who had left the faith under duress. He also provided medical care during a severe epidemic.

Hildegard of Bingen Thursday, September 17, 2015 A mystic who was widely influential within the church, Hildegard advised and reproved kings and popes, wrote poems and hymns, and produced treatises in medicine, theology, and natural history. She was also a musician and artist.

Dag Hammarskjöld Friday, September 18, 2015 A Swedish diplomat, Hammarskjöld served as the second Secretary General of the United Nations until his death in a plane crash while trying to negotiate peace in present-day Zambia. His journal, published as Markings, revealed the depth of his Christian faith.
